4. Write down the summary of the poem "The Rain" written by W.H. Davies. (5)

Ans For Answer see Paper 2016 (Group-I), Q.4.

OR

Paraphrase the following lines into simple English with reference to the context:

But all of that is
not its core,
its center is in truth
eternal stillness.

Ans Reference to the Context:

Dr. Hartmann wrote a poem on "Peace" from which the above given stanza has been taken. The theme of the poem is nature. It is the last stanza. Nature gives lessons through wind, water, mountains and light. The wind like storm destroys everything in its way. But, on the other hand, gentle and cool wind gives life to trees, birds, animals and mankind. We can experience this side of the storm and enjoy the hidden peace.

Explanation:

The poet tells in this stanza that nature not only brings destruction to life but it gives life to all on the earth. We should experience the storms to enjoy the peace and its blessings behind the storm. The outer side of the thing is not so important.

5. Write an essay of 150-200 words on any ONE of the following topics: (15)

- (a) A Rainy Day
- (b) Life in a Big City
- (c) My Ambition

ANS

(a) A Rainy Day

For Answer see Paper 2016 (Group-II), Q.5.(a).

(b) Life in a Big City

Daily life in a big city like Lahore is even so busy and exciting. The busiest hours of the day are called peak hours. The rush of traffic in the morning, at midday and in the early evening is at its peak. The big urban transport buses, wagons, cars, coaches, private transport vehicles, taxi cabs, motor cycles, tongas and rehras pass up and down from morning till late at night. At peak hours, the noise of the passing traffic is so high that two persons cannot hear each other. The busiest and terribly noisy spots in Lahore are the Minar-e-Pakistan, Badami Bagh, Bhati Gate, Mochi Gate, Railway Station, Regal Crossing, Laxmi Chowk, Ichhra and Multan Road.

Important buildings like the Lahore High Court, G.P.O, Museum, Jinnah Hall, Punjab University (Old Campus), Masjid Shuhada, Assembly Chambers, Wapda House, Zoo, Al Hamra, Quaid-e-Azam Library, Governor House, Aitchison College, Shopping Centers, Foreign Banks are situated on the Shahra-i-Quaid-e-Azam (The Mall). This main avenue is remarkably clean and green. There is practically no dust and its pavements are crowded with people hurrying to and fro. Traffic policemen are always on duty here and they regulate the heavy traffic efficiently. Well over a hundred thousand vehicles and half-a-million people pass up and down this busy thoroughfare in a single day.

Local and foreign tourist traffic to ancient sites like Badshahi Mosque, the Fort, the Jehangir and Noor Jehan Mausoleums and the Shalimar Gardens is also quite heavy.

Life in a big city like Lahore is a whirl of activities. On the other hand, broken streets, stray dogs, ill-smelling slums, stagnation, sloppy administration, soaring crimes and sickening pollution are the sore signs of city life as well.

(c) My Ambition

A man without ambition cannot progress in this world. Every young person should have an ambition for his life. It is a fact that progress, peace and prosperity are the result of human ambition. It is the ambition which urges us forward. I also cherish an ambition. I want to compete for a superior post in the CSS examination after my graduation. As a CSP officer, I want to serve my fellow citizens. I want to end the corruption, foul play, misuse of powers and red-tapism from our offices so that my country and my people may progress. I want to set a personal example of fair play and efficiency. I will live within my means and lead a simple life. I will refrain from every evil temptation. I will hate and condemn wrong recommendations and nepotism. I will decide cases on merits. I will work day and night for the uplift of my country fellows. I am ready to lay down my life for my motherland.

All the individuals who have some aim in life scaled giddy peaks of glory in their respective lives. Such persons shine like a star in the horizon of their country. They lift the pillars of their nation to the sky. They set an enviable example for their countrymen to follow.

Let us cherish high aims in life to become a leader. I will acknowledge here frankly that I maintain a higher place in society due to my ambition.

Suddenly, a tonga appeared in the middle of the road. It was coming from Urdu Bazaar. The driver of the truck tried to control it but could not. It collided against the tonga and smashed it into pieces. Two men were killed on the spot. Some received serious injuries.
